

The Alberta SuperNet

The Alberta SuperNet is a high-speed, high-capacity broadband network that links 429 communities right across the province. It is designed to carry different kinds of traffic, such as voice, video and data, on a single, powerful fibre optic "backbone". Its superior capacity and reliability support two-way, real-time communications such as voice-over-IP and high quality videoconferencing.

